EXPERIMENT OF CHANGING RIDERS WORKS WELL IN HEARTS OF OAK'S CASE

Giddings Three-Year-Old Makes Amends for His Recent Defeat When Peak Is Substituted for Gray in Durham Cup.

Toronto, Ont., September 24.—Hearts of Oak, champion of the Canadian-bred three-year-olds, showed his quality at Woodbine this afternoon and made amends for his previous defeats during the meeting when he gailoped home an easy winner in the Durham Cup, a $1,500 stake, the conditions of which-called for a journey of a mile and three-quarters. Hearts of Oak carried 122 pounds and showed that he is equally good at sprinting or staying. There was a change of riders on the celt this atternoon that brought an improvement in his running. The regular stable jockey, H. Gray, was taken down and C. Peak was given the mount. Gray is a light lad and not stout enough to nandle a big heavy-headed horse like Hearts of Oak. Peak held him well together and at no stage of the journey was the result in doubt. Hearts of Oak fook the lead at the start and, never relinquishing it, won easily by a couple of lengths from Lindesta, The pace was fast all the way and the time for the mile and three-quarters, 3:04½, was not much slower than the track record for the distance.

The Durham Cup was first raced for in 1906 and its history is as follows:

The latter held command until the last half mile, where Turbine moved up and, easily assuming the lead, won in a romp by half a dozen lengths. Only two favorites scored, the successful choices being Tom Holland and Calgary. Speculation was keener than on any day since the opening.

The best finish of the afternoon came with the running of the second race, a dash of six furlongs for two-year-olds, which went to Harbard by a nose over Stevesta. Tiktok, the favorite, was third. The latter has come from behind in his races. Today he was out in front making the pace and this rulned his chances. The race was with selling conditions and three claims were put in for Tiktok after he was beaten, all of them by local men. J. Greenwood is the person who purchased Rosturtum last fall from N. B. Davis at a big figure. The colt went wrong last spring and has never gone to the post for bis new owner.

T. P. Hayes leaves tomorrow for Kentucky, with his horses. His rider, W. W. Taylor, will remain here for the rest of the Woodbine meeting and will have the mount on Lindesta in the Ontario Jockey Club Cup on Saturday.

Stanley Davis, who has been riding in Belgium for the past two years for Theo, Meyers, was a visifor at Woodbine this a for the Norfolk meeting and the book will be issued next week.

Work on the construction of the new steel and concrete stand at Woodbine will begin on Monday next and the structure will be completed for the opening of the meeting here next spring.

Grace this afternoon and some excellent sport was seen by the large crowd that made the trip to the track.

The best field of the day took part in the Mount Royal Handicap, six furlongs, in which a good lot of sprinters faced the starter. The race was won by the favorite, Housennid. She led by a considerable margin until the last furlong, where she tired and at the end Musgrave had to ride hard to beat Shackleton a nose. Light O' M' Life ran in the name and interests of W. A. Read, of Washington, who purchased him from Frederick Johnson this morning at private sale.

T. G. Enricht won two purses with Noble Grand and Star Gift, but H. G. Bedwell bid up the lastnamed and made the stable pay $605 to retain him. Jockey Miller, who rode both horses, was suspended for the rest of the meeting by the stewards. He was charged with the rough riding that caused Tommic Thompson to fall.

The full list of entries for the nine stakes that will be run at Laurel next month was made public today. Those eligible to take in the $5,000 Grand National Handicap for three-year-olds and up, one mile and en eighth, are as follows: Rock View, Cock o' the Walk. Ten Point, Lochiel, El Oro, Mission, G. M. Miller, Starbottle, Kalinka, Flying Fairy, Gay Fisher, Adams Express, Flora Fina, Kingly, Sam Jackson, Carltos G., Mediator, Yankee Notions, Beethoven, Lahore, Barnegat, Buskin, All Gold, Nightstick, Tartar, After Blue Thistle won the second race, it cost the stable $805 to protect him, S. A. Clopton did the bidding.

The stable of H. C. Hallenbeck scored a double during the afternoon, winning the stake race with Housemaid. Blue Thistle was the other winner. Both were ridden by Phil Musgrave, L. Burlingame, father of the rider of that name, arrived here today from Vancouver and will look after his son's interests for the rest of the Maryland season. Burlingame left his stable of horses at Vancouver.

Oak lost.

Fred W., Hamilton, Ont. The four-year-old bay colt by Bannockburn—Ida Kearney is registered in the Stud Book under the name Potts Nevins but through misunderstanding as to his real name he was raced as Pons Neville at several tracks, Hamilton among them. In backing Pons Neville at Timonium, September 4, you was really betting on Potts Nevins and should have been paid when he won through the disgualification of Blitz. The pedigree identifies Pons Neville as being in reality Potts Nevins.

WELL BACKED HORSES WIN AT LOUISVILLE

Second Day's Racing at Douglas Park Is Attended by Formful Results.

Louisville, Ky., September 24.—Favorites and second choices figured prominently in the results of today's facing at Douglas Park. Lady London, winner of the third race, was the only outsider to flash by the finish in advance. Considering the ordinary card, a generous patronage was on hand,

The sport was interesting and well contested from barrier rise. In some of the contests, particularly in the two-year-old scrambles, there was unavoidable crowding, which had considerable bearing on the results.

Speculation was light by comparison with the apring season, but held up well with the figures for the second day of last fall's meeting. It is expected that there will be a gradual improvement in this respect as soon as the public gets a better line on the starters.

apring season, but held up well with the figures for the second day of last fall's meeting. It is expected that there will be a gradual improvement in this tespect as soon as the public gets a better line on the starters.

The sport this afternoon began with a dash that brought to the post the limit number of starters—twelve. George J. Long's Ralph and Amos Turney's Waterbass were most in favor and the race was between the two for the eatire trip. Ralph won handily. In the following race E. R. Bradley's Bac scored oved Old Ben by a narrow margin. Old Ben was best, but was forced to go wide.

An ordinary band contested the third race, which resulted in a victory for Lady London over Uncle Hart, with the favorite, U Steppa, in third place. Jack Kellogg was touted as a "good thing" for the fourth, but fluished second to Weyanoke, P. T. Chinn sent his first winner to the post on a Kentucky track in several years when Billy Holder, which be trains for J. S. Hawkins, led Galley Slave home in the fifth race. The final race went to Carlton Club, which showed a smart performance in coming from a long way back.

John E. Madden arrived today from Lexington with four horses that he intends to campaign on the Kentucky tracks for the remainder of the season.

The two-horse combination, consisting of Bac and Lady London, yielded $146.90, and the three-horse, Weyanoke, Billy Holder and Carlton Club, paid $212.80.

P. M. Civill and Doerhoefer & West, whose stables were campaigned in Canada, reached here today from Montreal, and their horses are quartered at Clurchill Downs.

The horses on the ailing list in the J. N. Camden stable are now considered fully out of daugor, Helios is taking kindly to his training and was 324-loped six furlongs at the Downs this morning in the morning whiter.

Trainer Mose Goldblatt of the Jefferson Livingston stable reported this morning to the judges that Foundation had been struck sharply across the face by one of the riders during the running and was galloped six furlongs at the running and was Winner—Ch. c, by Solitaire II.—Salvatrix (trained by L. A. McGroarty).

Went to post at 2:48. At post 3 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. HARBARD began quite slowly and was in the middle of the track all the way, but closed a big gap and, finishing gamely, got up to win in the final stride. STEVESTA was a forward contender all the way, but thred after disposing of TIKTOK. The latter set the pace and, being made too much use of, tired badly in the homestretch. NOTES OF THE TURF.

The bookmakers have supplanted the mutuels as the method of speculation in connection with the Oklahoma State Fair meeting now going on at Oklahoma City.

T. A. Davies' fast filly Roseltaire recently stepped on a broken bottle at Minoru Park, Vancouver, and cut her left fore fetlock so severely that it was found necessary to destroy her.

found necessary to destroy her.

William Midgley, erstwhile rider for the late Marcus Daly, Jack McDonald and other owners of prominence, has been engaged to train a number of two-year-olds and yearlings for Gifford A. Cochran.

J. F. Newman, Kay Spence and T. P. Hayes will ship their stables to Kentucky at the conclusion of the Woodbine meeting. Hayes has decided not to start Donerall in the Kentucky Endurance Stakes according to reports from Toronto.

according to reports from foronto.

This week Alex Smith Cochrane will ship his Irish steeplechaser, Postboy, abroad to race in England and Ireland. Mr. Smith purchased the four-year-old bay son of Avidity and Low Gill last winter for $13,500. He recently refused an offer of $20,000 for the horse.

CONSIDERING MUTUELS AT OTTAWA.

Ottawa, Ont., September 24.—At a meeting of the directors of the Connaught Park Jockey Club, Albert Roirback, of Buffalo, was appointed general manager. Mr. Roirback will have charge of the entire plant henceforth, as well as the arrangements for the race meetings. The selection was unanimous in view of the good work which Mr. Rohrback has accomplished in the interests of the association. He came here four years ago, when the racing scheme was in its infancy, and the fact that Ottawa now hoasts one of the inest plants on the continent is largely due to the efforts of Mr. Rohrback, who represents the Buffalo stockholders on the directorate. He has decided to make Ottawa his home and goes to Buffalo this week to make arrangements for his transfer of residence.

The spring and fall meetings were both highly successful from a financial standpoint, and the club will show a handsome surplus. It is stated that the parl-mutuels may be installed at Connaught Park next summer. Several of the directors will go to Woodbine this week to get a line on the operation of the "iron men."

LIVINGSTON YEARLINGS AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., September 24.—Theodore Pierce left here this afternoon for Louisville to consult with Mose Goldblatt concerning the training of the six yearlings he bought yesterday for Jefferson Livingston from Phil T, Chinn. The youngsters are to remain in Pierce's care at the Kentucky Association track.

TIMELY GOSSIP FROM LOUISVILLE.

TIMELY GOSSIP FROM LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., September 24.—Trainer O. A. Bianchi brought five of the James MacManus string to Douglas Park and J. C. Cahn has two of the MacManus horses here, Rooster and George Oxnard. Those Bianchi has in charge are Irish Gentleman, Presumption, O'Hagan, O'Reilly and Belloc. MacManus has presented to James P. Ross, superintendent of the Kentucky Association track, his once famous performer, Rocky O'Brien, This gelding will be used by his new owner for saddle purposes and no attempt will be made to race him again. Mr. MacManus has purchased four yearlings, this season and is still in the market for more young racing material, Trainer Cahn has only Sleeth in training for himself at present. His old stand-by Mockler, has been turned out at the Glen Helen Farm, near Lexington, and will not be taken up until next spring. Cahn hopes to be able to buy an old horse of good quality this fall to take with Sleeth, Rooster and George Oxnard to Juarez.

Sam Jackson and Absconder have arrived here to be prepared for the $15,000 Kentucky Endurance. Stakes, four miles, to be run at Churchill Downs on the opening afternoon of the ten-days meeting of the New Louisville Jockey Club on Wednesday, October S. Absconder, which will run in the big race under the subscription of his owner, Jesse Williamson II. was brought to Churchill Downs by trainer James Fitzsimmons and is quartered in stable J. at that track. Sam Jackson breeze a mile and a half in 3:05%. The horse made quite an impression by his track appearance on trainers of other candidates for the big race. J. T. Weaver, the owner of Gowell, also an eligible for the long-distance race, watched McGinnis' big horse with interest. Trainer Jack Keene, who has a warm admiration for Sam Jackson, looked him over carefully and considers him in the best of condition for his final training for the rich stake.

Secretary Lyman H. Davis, of the New Louisville Jockey Club, now figures on about a dozen starters in the four-mile gace at the Downs hext mo
